Parker Gallery's inaugural exhibitions

Sam Parker's namesake gallery, famously housed in a five-bedroom Storybook home in Los Feliz, has a new location in a renovated 1947 building on Melrose Avenue. Its inaugural offerings: Joe Minter's first solo exhibition on the West Coast, featuring large-scale sculptures and recent paintings examining the reverberations of slavery in Black contemporary society; and Daisy Sheff's whimsical and nearly-absurd paintings and sculptures, made across two studios in Northern and Southern California. Both exhibitions, which opened Wednesday, are on view Tuesday through Saturday, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., through March 29. Parker Gallery, 6700 Melrose Ave, L.A. parkergallery.com.
