

GREATER LA

'Zeitgeist' of LA's art scene: See it through 3 new group shows

Hosted by Steve Chiotakis • Jul. 13, 2023

ARTS

Parker Gallery's "Wishing Well" is full of bright and colorful works from over 60 artists representing "the zeitgeist of the moment," says Lindsay Preston Zappas.

Photo by Paul Saveson, courtesy of Parker Gallery, Los Angeles.

Nothing says summer in LA like leisurely strolling through an air-conditioned art museum or gallery. Three new summer group shows are up now:

"Wishing Well" at Parker Gallery, right below Griffith Park in Los Feliz, features 67 artists. It's actually a fundraiser for a nonprofit that the gallery owner started called Giving Strength, which supports research and treatments for a rare genetic disorder called SELENON Related Myopathy.

Chiotakis, Steve and Lindsay Preston Zappas, "'Zeitgeist' of LA's art scene: See it through 3 new group shows," KCRW, July 13, 2023 (online)

2441 Glendower Ave
Los Angeles, CA 90027

PARKER GALLERY